

D.J. Training & Consulting, LLC

Specialized Training & Consulting for Criminal Justice Professionals

JAIL INTELLIGENCE: A MODEL FOR SMALL & MEDIUM SIZED JAILS

HOW TO IMPLEMENT A JAIL INTELLIGENCE PROCESSES INSIDE SMALL-TO-MEDIUM SIZED JAILS TO ENHANCE JAIL SAFETY & SECURITY, ASSIST INVESTIGATORS, MITIGATE LIABILITY, & DRIVE STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP DECISION MAKING

David J. Schilling, M.S.

This four-hour course is designed to equip criminal justice professionals with an understanding of the role and impact of jail information and intelligence that may be gathered and refined during the course of daily operations. Jail Intelligence is a powerful tool for closing cases, making new cases, providing analytical data, and keeping a safer, more secure jail facility.

In this course, participants will explore the multifaceted world of symbols and delve into their significance within the context of law enforcement. Attendees will gain the necessary knowledge and skills to interpret, respond to, and employ symbolism effectively in their duties.

Examples of Topics Covered

1. Understanding Jail Intelligence & Analysis
2. Collecting Information in Jail: Sources
3. Information Gathering Thru Direct Supervision
4. Analyzing Jail Data
5. Jail Data Yields Improves Analytical Results
6. Intelligence Driven Security Measures
7. Risk Assessment
8. Enhancing Inmate Management with Intelligence
9. Technology & Analysis
10. Future Prospects & Challenges
11. Ethical Considerations
12. Intelligence Collaboration & Sharing
13. Officer Database Entry: Training from the Ground UP
14. Data Privacy/Confidentiality
15. Training Staff

By the end of this course, criminal justice professionals will possess a deeper appreciation for the potential uses of jail information & intelligence, how to use it to their advantage in investigations, and how to leverage its potential in providing better accurate risk assessments, closing cases, enhancing crime analysis, and keeping a safer, more secure facility.

David J. Schilling, M.S., CBGS, (pictured on the right) has worked in the Criminal Justice Field since 2006 as a Correctional Officer, Security Threat Group specialist, and gang instructor. His specialties are street gangs, the use of the Runes & symbology used by white supremacist groups, jail intelligence process implementation, the belief systems of radicalized Asatru & Odinism, as well as various occult topics.

In 2020, he authored the book, Norse/Germanic Runes & Symbols: Field Reference Guide for Law Enforcement & Corrections," and, The Jail Intelligence Manual in 2022. David speaks & teaches throughout the United States, providing training for hundreds of police, corrections, criminal intelligence analysts, and court staff. David actively assists investigations & shares information about gangs, extremism, & the white supremacist symbology with various local, state, and Federal agencies, prosecutors, training associations, and various agencies overseas.

To Contact David Schilling for Training or Consulting

507-696-3354

David@RuneResearch.com

www.RuneResearch.com

Conference/Training Organizers:

E-Mail Me for a Free Copy of My Books, Both Available on Amazon: Just Search for "Jail Intelligence".

